Where European Mining Meets the World

EUROPEAN MINING CONVENTION

Dublin, Ireland

3rd-4th DECEMBER 2019

OVERVIEW

The European mining industry has a long tradition and today it is also among the continent's most modern and innovative industrial sectors. Europe is rich in natural resources, the extraction & supply of minerals continue to play a crucial role in the European economy. The European Mining industry is fundamental for the continent's economic well being. Europe is almost self-sufficient in producing many industrial minerals and aggregates.

Europe's affiliation in general and Ireland's in particular with mining dates back to the Bronze Age (2000 B.C.). Ireland was an important producer of copper and alluvial gold for making artefacts such as coins and jewellery. In addition to metal mining, Ireland has a rich heritage of industrial mineral and coal extraction.

Ireland is the leader in technology, providing innovative products, solutions, and services that help mining companies achieve better operational, value chain efficiency, exceed safety & sustainability goals, and maximise overall financial performance. Europe particularly Ireland is committed to promote the technology connection and is helping the world to embrace new technology opportunities. This makes Ireland an ideal meeting point for stakeholders in the Mining & Metallurgy industry to exchange experience and technical expertise between Europe and rest of the world.

European Mining Convention (EMC-2019) is an initiative to accelerate collaboration between European and global mining & metals industry by bringing together industry leaders and other stakeholders with an aim to reframe the idea of sustainability by exchanging knowledge, technical expertise and experience.
ABOUT THE EVENT

European Mining Convention (EMC - 2019) aims at connecting the European mining industry with the rest of the world to reframe sustainability with innovation and experience. This event will demonstrate the latest technology and innovative solutions to various stakeholders in the industry to take this opportunity to expand connections, launch new products and forge new business partnerships. EMC aims to bring together leading international Mining & Quarrying companies, Mining Ministries, Geological Research Authorities & Surveys, Mining Chambers & Associations, Service & Technology Providers, Mining Thought Leaders, Investors, Consulting Organisations and Researchers to exchange their experiences and explore numerous business opportunities through an excellent networking & exhibiting platform. EMC - 2019 will provide a top-notch interdisciplinary forum for various stakeholders in the mining industry to present and discuss the most recent innovations, trends & concerns, practical challenges encountered and the solutions adopted in the field of Mining, Material, and Metallurgical Engineering.

The mining industry in Europe is witnessing unrivalled development. EMC - 2019 will focus on exploiting new opportunities in Europe’s prodigiously developing mining industry. The conference & exhibition will bring together the stakeholders leading key projects, the latest opportunities in mineral exploration, reformation of codes and regulations, and development of opportunities across Europe and a number of exciting countries in the world.
COLLABORATING TO REFRAME SUSTAINABILITY WITH INNOVATION AND EXPERIENCE

The event is based on the theme of sustainability, innovation and experience. The theme summarizes our idea of the need for global collaboration and exchange of knowledge for creating a sustainable future of the mining industry.

Europe has a long tradition of excellence in mining. EMC 2019 will focus on sharing Europe’s experience and technical know-how by bringing together global mining leaders to collaborate and work towards the concept of reframing sustainability for better mining future.
European Mining Convention (EMC - 2019) will feature a comprehensive conference gathering global mining experts, government decision makers, mining-focused investors and expert service providers. The conference will provide high-value actionable content with the key focus on reframing sustainability through the exchange of experience and technical expertise. The conference will highlight leading innovations, the latest trends in equipment and technologies that are set to reform the mining sector.

An ideal platform for displaying and launching new initiatives, machinery products & technologies, establishing partnerships and developing global contacts. European Mining Convention (EMC - 2019) will provide an unparalleled exhibiting platform to get your brand recognised by key purchasers, decision makers which will help leverage your brand equity and facilitate acquiring highly targeted business leads.
